WELCOME

December 2-3, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the over 150 CPMA members, board of directors, and staff, I welcome you to the 2022 CPMA Annual Symposium.

The symposium committee has worked hard over the past few months to provide another informative, engaging day-and-a-half program. The topics range from medical and legal updates to coding, surgery and practice management, and more. We strived to gather experts in each field, so you will leave with information that can be applied Monday morning after the conference.

We are fortunate to be back at the Marriott Downtown in Hartford this year. The venue provides a convenient location for those around the state with comfortable and affordable rooms.

We are thrilled to install a new president, Dr. Kristen Winters, and invite attendees and vendor partners to join us at the cocktail reception immediately following the final lecture Friday afternoon.

We're encouraging attendees to visit the exhibit hall during the breaks to learn from the companies that continue to help make our program a yearly success. Additionally, please take the time to view the numerous products and services available for patient care and offices.

Thank you again for being part of our Annual Symposium.

Regards,

Marc A. Lederman, DPM

Executive Director, CPMA
